Welcome to 2022!

It’s a new year and time to start thinking about registering for our Pal-Am Conference in Denver. Registration opens January 10. We hope that you will register early so that we can finish our planning knowing how many members are going to attend.

Our state chapters are already planning seminars and meetings for 2022. Be sure to keep up to date by checking our website. (palam.org)

The Resource Center continues to be closed due to the current surge of COVID. The Transition Team has begun the huge task of digitizing the archives in the Resource Center. Due to the high cost of the rent, we plan to move the collections to a new space by the end of the year.

The National Board has members from the state Chapters, as well as members from other states, so we will continue to hold meetings via Zoom. Treasurer Gary Martzolf has researched the feasibility of a combined insurance policy to cover liability for state chapters plus National. The National Board will review the proposal at the meeting on January 15. The Nominations Committee is active and the slate of officers will appear in the next issue of the Patter.

A big “Thank You” to our donors who added a donation to their renewal memberships this year. We couldn’t be a vibrant organization without your financial support.

If you have discovered a German speaking ancestor who came to the colonies in 1709-1710, you may be eligible to join our Kocherthal Circle. Check the information under the Members Only section on our website.

Plans are underway for the 2022 Salt Lake City trip to the recently renovated Family History Library. Check the website for registration information.

We are looking forward to a productive new year. If you would like to help us with any of our projects and programs, please let me or your chapter officers know.

Join our Speaker, Deb Cyprych, as you can gain valuable information from German church records without being an expert in reading German script or understanding German.

Deb is a professional genealogist, Ohio Pal-Am board member, and editor of NGS Magazine. She has 2,500 hours of German genealogical research experience in the United States, Germany, and German-speaking areas of Poland, France, and Switzerland. She has written numerous articles about German research and is the author of "Germans in Hamilton County, Ohio," on the FamilySearch Research Wiki.

To register visit our website at https://oh-palam.org/events.php or email ckfsmail@gmail.com with your name and email address in the email.

All German Community Forum sessions are free and open to the public. Please feel free to share and invite anyone you know who may be interested.

PAL-AM BOOKSTORE AS TREASURE CHEST

The Pal-Am Bookstore has a wealth of useful materials. Members received the journal PALATINE IMMIGRANT since the time of joining Pal-Am. PALATINE IMMIGRANT issues published prior to the date of joining Pal-Am are available. There are informative articles about various immigrant groups, how life was in the German-speaking areas at the time of immigration, info about the immigration voyage, settlements in the US, etc.

On the Pal-Am website go to BOOKSTORE and check out the summaries of the early IMMIGRANTS. You are likely to find gems. Happy researching!

COLORADO CHAPTER REPORT

The Colorado Chapter looks back on 2021 with great satisfaction with the accomplishments of the year, despite many challenges. We were able to host both Spring and Fall Seminars on Zoom, in addition to commencing and making great progress in planning for the June National Conference in Denver.

Under the leadership of Conference Chair Gina Moore, speaker contracts have been executed, presentation topics have been finalized, hotel registration was initiated (and continues), and arrangements for conference spaces have been initiated. Those efforts continue through planning sessions and individual contacts.

CO Pal-Am treasurer Jerry Schaefer continues to shepherd the budgeting. Vice-president Jean West has finalized planning for the Historic German Denver bus tour and a sponsor was secured for the tour. Kay Mariea and webmaster Tom Hoffman have worked with registrar Yvonne Schaeffer on conference registration materials, as well as conference publicity materials. Yvonne will begin registering conference attendees this month. Booking for lodging reservations at the Hilton Doubletree Denver, which opened earlier this summer, is on-going. See our chapter website at copalam.us for more information about the conference and registration details.

Arrangements for our speakers have been finalizing as well. Dr. Wolfgang Grams will be the featured speaker on Friday, June 17, with Daniel Jones presenting on Saturday, June 18.

We are grateful for the wonderful work of our elected board and volunteers to carry out the many chapter functions. Kay Mariea has done an amazing job as newsletter editor for over fifteen years. Her tenure has come to an end as she has become more involved in other chapter duties with the National Conference planning. The board continues to seek someone to step into her shoes.

INDIANA CHAPTER REPORT

The next session in our Collaborative Learning Series (CLS) will take place via Zoom on Saturday, February 19, 2022 from 1 PM – 3 PM EST. These sessions are meant to be informative, educational, and interactive so that we share information and experiences about a given topic to learn from one another.

The topic will be Newspapers - with a special focus on German-language newspapers. This useful resource cannot only provide important genealogical information about specific ancestors, but can also contribute additional details that can add significant context to their lives and where they lived.

After a brief introduction to the subject, a history of German-language newspapers in Indiana will be given by Steven Schmidt. He is currently a board member of the Indiana German Heritage Society and co-editor of their quarterly newsletter.

Among other subjects he will also give demonstrations about using this resource when you don’t speak much German. Afterwards, Kent Robinson, membership chair of the Indiana Chapter, will share information about finding such newspapers throughout the United States as well as in Germany.

Come prepared not only to learn about using this valuable resource, but also to share your own tips and research success stories about using newspapers and German-language newspapers, in particular.

This meeting is open to Pal-Am members only, of any chapter. Advance registration is required. To register, please send an e-mail to indianapalam@gmail.com indicating your name, phone number, and a state chapter membership (if other than Indiana) using a subject of “CLS-Newspapers.”

FAMILY HISTORY LIBRARY RESEARCH TRIP

After a successful FHL Research Trip in September - even with limited library hours due to COVID - we are hopeful that the situation will be more pre-pandemic normal for our 2022 trip. We have reserved the dates with the Salt Lake Plaza Hotel to hold our annual 2022 FHL Research Trip to the Family History Library from September 25-October 1.

The current hours for the library are Monday through Friday from 9 AM – 5 PM. From earlier reports, the library hopes to next expand their hours to include Saturday when the situation enables them to do so. Due to the unusual situation presented by COVID19, we will again be waiving all cancellation fees, if done prior to August 24, which is the date we must turn in the room list to the hotel.

PENNSYLVANIA CHAPTER REPORT

The Pennsylvania Chapter held our annual membership meeting via Zoom at the end of October. The program included presentations by Keith Brintzenhoff, noted Pennsylvania Deitsch singer, musician, linguist, and storyteller. We received very positive feedback from those who attended. We recorded the session and uploaded the video to the Pal-Am YouTube channel; you can access it at https://youtu.be/unjdkLpwaJo. Keith’s program started before the meeting and resumed after we concluded our business, so make sure you catch both parts.

We emailed a Christmas issue of our Penn Pal newsletter in mid-December. It was full of holiday articles, including the history of the Moravian Christmas Putz and other Putzes, as well as several traditional Pennsylvania German holiday recipes. We hope our members received and enjoyed this special issue.

We are hoping to have an in-person seminar in the fall of 2022, but COVID will determine whether we can do that. More to come.

Families that intermarried in Central PA 1740-1810 and moved west, including Ohio, Iowa and Texas. Looking for record that proves Catherine, b. abt 1806 is the daughter of Michael and Marie Hebeisen. Have searched available original Church records with no results, and I am hoping a bible record exists for any of these families.

This collection is a major acquisition and resource for those researching early Palatine immigrants.

The renowned genealogist and author Hank Z Jones Jr. has decided to retire and is determined that his vast collection of genealogical materials be housed in New York State and made available to the public.

Everyone studying or researching Germans who emigrated from the Palatinate during the colonial period has referenced the excellent and well-documented genealogy books written by Hank Jones. Or you may have heard his highly interesting presentations on genealogical research or the history of the Palatines at genealogy conferences. Hank has been researching 18th century Palatines since his interest started in 1960.

Much of his research was done on-site, village-to-village in collaboration with Carla Mittelstaedt-Kubaseck. Together they documented over 600 of the ancestral origins of the 847 families who arrived in New York in 1710. During his research, Hank assembled quite a collection of reference books. To be more specific, approximately 850 books; 1970 thru 2020 issues of The New York Genealogical & Biographical Record and filing cabinets full of Carla Mittelstaedt-Kubaseck’s many reports. He used these resources to do his own research to document and share information about the colonial period Palatines.

He approached friends in the New York Chapter of Palatines to America to help him find the right repository. Arrangements have already been made to house the collection at the Germantown (New York) Library and the Germantown, NY History Department in the old Reformed Parsonage. The library will be assisting with cataloging, shelving, and preserving this collection to make it available to the public.

I use both volumes of The Palatine Families of New York, 1710, every day. A very high percentage of the questions I receive as town historian relate to the family origins of the 1710 Palatines. Germantown holds an importance to Palatine German descendants equal to that of Plymouth Rock to people of Massachusetts English descent.

Thomas Shannon, Germantown Historian

Our New York Chapter needs to raise the funds to have the collection boxed and delivered 3,000 plus miles from Hank’s home in California to Germantown by professional movers. In addition, once the collection is here, we will have additional costs to shelf, index and preserve the items so they can be accessed.

If you would like to support this effort with a modest donation our PayPal account is at Palamny@gmail.com Please add a note that it is for the Hank Jones collection.

Or you could send a check, make checks payable to: NY Chapter Palatines to America, please write on the check: “Hank Jones Collection.”

PROJECT PANDA UPDATE

A lot of progress has been made with Project PANDA (Pal-Am National Digital Archive) since the report in the October issue.

Phase 1
Scanning commenced with Phase 1 (society records in filing cabinets) in early October and is roughly 95% complete. Images are saved on the dedicated laptop computer and backed up to a cloud service. In the near future, we will also copy the files to an external hard drive for an additional back-up. The images of the initial scanning process will need to be reviewed and approved.

Phase 2
This involves society records such as national board meeting records, annual membership meeting records, chapter newsletters beginning in 1991, and copies of The Palatine Patter. The annual membership meeting records have been completed as well as the chapter newsletters. The Palatine Patter issues are all on the website, however they are not PDF searchable.

Phase 3
This involves genealogically-related records in filing cabinets. We expect this will begin sometime in February. There are a number of different collections involved in this portion of the project.

Phase 4
This portion includes the (IAR—Immigrant Ancestor Registers and also Generations Chart Project) and Phase 5 (genealogically-related records).

The ultimate goal is to reduce the amount of stored paper as much as possible.
